Capital Credit Union Celebrates 90 Years with Annual Meeting and Member Appreciation event at Lambeau Field

Green Bay, Wis. – Capital Credit Union hosted its Annual Meeting and Member Appreciation event at Lambeau Field on Tuesday, June 4th in celebration of its 90-year anniversary. The event took place from 4:30 PM to 8 PM, featuring a showcase of the credit union's history and a glimpse into its future.

Capital Credit Union held its Annual Meeting starting at 5:30 PM in Lambeau Field's atrium, providing members an opportunity to learn more about the financial strength of the credit union, as well as plans for the future. Capital Credit Union also conducted an election for its Board of Directors during this time. The candidates proposed by the Nominating Committee were:

- Zalalem (Lalu) Bere
- Melanie Haen
- Nancy Reitveld

As part of the credit union's Member Appreciation, members had exclusive access to tours of Lambeau Field and the Hall of Fame, both before and after the meeting. Festivities were held outside and at the Johnsonville Tailgate Village, which included a classic tailgate-style meal, family-friendly activities such as face painting, balloon artists, and games, as well as a signing with Green Bay Packers wide-receiver Romeo Doubs.

"Celebrating 90 years is a significant milestone for Capital Credit Union," shared Laurie Butz, President & CEO. "We wanted to create a truly special moment to honor our members and the community that has supported us through the decades. Hosting our Annual Meeting and Member Appreciation event at Lambeau Field was a fantastic way to celebrate our members and commemorate the family and community values we hold dear. We are profoundly grateful for the unwavering support of our members and employees, and to Lambeau Field for making this event possible. With immense gratitude, we look forward to continuing our mission to serve our community with optimism and excitement for the future!"

The event had over 1,000 registered attendees, including members and employees of the credit union.
